Referral Incentives

Ivanti will pay a 10% referral fee for any sale resulting from a recommendation from our partners. All the partner needs to do is tell us about an organization with interest in our products via the deal registration portal and we'll work with them to close the business together.

Referral partners become part of our active recruitment strategy and could potentially move into our resell program. Becoming a member of our resell community comes through active and consistent referral and closure of deals, as well as a recommendation by a partner sales manager.

Benefits of our Referral Partner program:

- Access to the partner portal.
- Potential advancement into our resell program.

Ivanti is focused on delivering an experience that drives high success, with people, tools and resources we are your guide growth. To deliver upon this, we believe that your experience as a Referral Partner should be at the core of our program.
