

The Future of the Everywhere Workplace in the U.K.

Employees have adapted to remote work, and they like it!

66%

of employees would choose the ability to work remotely over getting a promotion.

49%

of employees would take a pay cut in exchange for being able to work remotely.

Do the benefits outweigh the concerns?

Top benefits included...

48% Saving money

45% Better work/life balance

42% Less commute stress

Lack of interaction with colleagues 44%

Less physical movement throughout the day 40%

Screen fatigue 33%

Top concerns included...

Employee behavior has become more relaxed

42%

of employees have worn pajama pants on a video conference call.

34%

have watched TV or a movie on mute during a conference call.

28%

have gone to the bathroom or taken a shower during a conference call.

The Everywhere Workplace is here to stay!
That's a good thing for employees.

It's up to organizations to make securing devices and data a top priority while helping employees stay connected, engaged and productive.

Contact us