Security for Wherever Your Frontline Works

Let Ivanti help you improve your frontline worker cybersecurity protection.

Ivanti Frontline Worker Cyber Protection Program

The latest Australian Government cyber report confirms that Australian companies continue to be the target of cybercrime.

With attack surfaces become harder to defend against, Ivanti have built a cyber program to help protect your frontline mobile workers.

We apply Australian Government Essential Eight security controls and ACSC Guidelines for Mobility to your workers in healthcare, transport, retail, utilities and other industries.
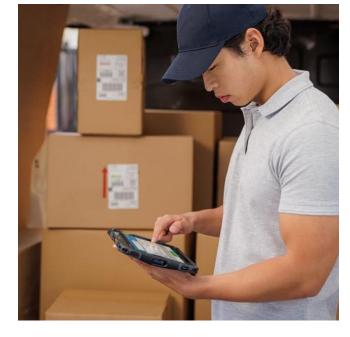

What's included?

- A mobility-focused cyber program to secure your workers against increasing threats.
- Ivanti software to manage and implement the necessary security controls including threat defence software to detect and stop cyber threats.
- Workshops with Ivanti security engineers for best practice guidelines and recommendations.
- Ivanti professional services to implement and support.

Ivanti have been providing Essential Eight-aligned cybersecurity solutions to Australian companies for over 10 years.
